

§4.6 Research Grants

The Department of Mathematics members hold grants with an annual funding of over $600,000. The grants are from a variety of sources and in many different subjects. Beyond the existing grants many of the department members are currently applying for new funding sources.